Council To Consider Livestock Ordinance

Appomattox Town Council will consider an ordinance about the keeping of fowl and livestock at their December meeting, Monday, Dec. 22 at 8,p.m. at the Town Office.

The ordinance says in part that "it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to allow any fowl or poultry or livestock of any description to stray to public property or private premises of another" and that all such poultry, fowl or livestock shall be sufficiently housed or fenced up by the owner or person in charge.

Any livestock kept within the Town limits has to have at least two and one-half acres for each head of livestock and the lot must be at least one hundred feet from any dwelling.

The proposed ordinance also calls for suitable stables, including specific requirements for cleaning, lighting and ventilation.

If the ordinance is approved a permit will be required before any poultry or livestock may be kept in Town.

Violaters of the ordinance are liable for a $5.00 fine and costs for each day of violation.

Lights on Dec. 1

Appomattox Town Council during the November me requested town crews to ti the Christmas lights Wednesday, December 1st.

In other preparations for Christmas, the Fire Dep Committee was requested to prepare for the annual fire men's supper and party.

Council voted to advertise the complete ordinance on the keeping of fowl and livestock in the TIMES-VIRGINIAN.

Let Us Unite And Give Thanks
All of us have something in common. This is our country. Let us remember its noble heritage, and our forefathers on Thanksgiving.

'Fire Call' For Everyone

Firemen of Appomattox have answered several calls lately - brush fires, timber fires and others. And now, there are two gentlemen making "calls for them. Paul Drinkard assisted by James E. Ford, the Appomattox town policeman, are asking friends and neighbors to contribute to a fund to give the firemen their usual Christmas "bonus."

Both Drinkard and Ford say that this is in no way a "payoff check" because volunteer service is just that! Firemen, however, get up at all hours of the night - leave meetings, home comfort, church services, etc. to answer the wail of the siren. Such service many feel, does merit a small cash gift at Christmas time. In addition, there will be an annual Christmas dinner and party for the firemen.

How about it? A dollar - two - five or more can say "Thank You" to a fireman in a very special way.

Deadline For ASC Election Dec. 1

The deadline for voting in the ASC committeemen election is only six days away reminded J. F. Alvis, Jr., Chairman of the Appomattox County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, in a final plea for all eligible farm voters to return their marked ballots to the County ASC Office by Dec. 1.

Mr. Alvis reminded farmers that they must not mark their ballots for more than three candidates. As always, the candidates receiving the largest number of votes becomes chairman of the community committee; second largest, vice-chairman; third largest, regular member; and fourth and fifth largest becomes first and second alternates.

The County ASC Committee Chairman emphasized the steps each farmer should follow to make sure his ballot will be eligible for counting and that his vote be kept secret:

1. Vote for one, two, or three candidates. (Select from listed nominees or write in choices on bottom of ballot.)

2. Place marked ballot inside plain envelope and seal.

3. Place plain envelope inside certification envelope addressed to County Office and seal.

4. Sign and date back of certification envelope.

5. Mail certification envelope or return it to the County ASCS Office by December 1.

When election ballots are received, they are put in a sealed ballot box until the County ASC Committee publicly tabulates the votes on Dec. 6, 1971 at 9 a.m. in the ASCS Office. At that time, the ballot box will be emptied in full view of everyone who wishes to watch the counting. The County Committee will check the envelopes for voting eligibility. Envelopes that are not properly certified will be laid aside and not opened or counted.

Properly certified envelopes will be opened and the plain envelopes containing the ballots will be placed in a separate stack. The envelopes will be thoroughly shuffled so that there will be no way to identify the plain envelope with the certification envelope it was removed from.

Farm owners, tenants, sharecroppers and farm wives whose names appear on the farm deed or tenant contract can cast a ballot in the election if they can take part in any ASCS program in the community and are of legal voting age.

"The prime function of county and community committees is service to farm communities by administering farm programs and helping farmers keep up-to-date on program information pertaining to the County. Each farmer should support these committees by electing responsible people who will do an effective job of serving all farmers," Mr. Alvis said.

A Hopewell Va., man was killed Monday in Appomattox County when the car he was driving went on Rt. 460 swerved off the right side of the road and toppled over an embankment 1.3 miles east of Concord at 12:30 p.m. Monday.

Trooper S. R. Simpson said Pappas was trapped under the car. Both the Appomattox County and the Concord Rescue Squads went to the scene of the accident.

Mrs. Evangela C. Pappas, 66, wife of the victim, also of Hopewell, was treated for body burns at Lynchburg General Hospital and released.

Mrs. Donna Woods, 25, and Mrs. Virginia Cashwell 38, both of Appomattox, were released from the hospital after being treated for injuries received in a two-car accident in the town of Appomattox at 12:30 p.m. Monday. Another Appomattox County Rescue Squad vehicle answered this call.

Concord And Appomattox Rescue Squads Answer Accident Calls Thursday

In a series of accidents, occuring last Thursday morning when fog blanketed a 2 mile stretch of Route 460 near Moore's Country Store, Concord Rescue Squad and all three of the Appomattox County Rescue Squad ambulances answered the call. Lynchburg Life Saving Squad was called to the accident as was Campbell County Rescue Squad and Citizens Emergency Crew to assist at the scene. Also assisting were members of persons with personal First Aid training.

In the series of accidents, in which one person was killed and several injured, more than 20 vehicles were involved in at least four separate accidents occuring in the 2 mile stretch of fog that brought visibility down to near zero.

According to spokesmen from both the Concord Rescue Squad and the Appomattox County Rescue Squad, unless you had been there, you couldn't possibly imagine the weather conditions and the accidents resulting from those conditions.

The Times-Virginian would like to thank the Concord Rescue Squad for furnishing the above pictures.

Market To Open Tuesday

Auction markets for dark-fired tobacco at Farmville, Lynchburg and Kenbridge will open November 30 and sell leaf for three weeks before the Christmas closing on December 16.

The three-day auction week, Tuesday through Thursday, will be used again for the 1971 crop auctions.

The dark-fired tobacco Marketing Committee, meeting in Farmville, agreed with a split, but majority vote, to reopen after the holidays on Tuesday, Jan. 11, 1972, and to close the market for the season on Feb. 3.

To eliminate the long waiting lines of last year, the warehouses are authorized to book sales ahead of time, beginning November 22. Growers can't be assured of any particular spot on the auction floor, but they will be informed of what day their leaf will be sold, the committee said.

Growers who have warehouse auction baskets at home should inform warehouses of the number of baskets they'll have for any particular sale. "We encourage you to take the baskets for use on sales days," T. B. Hall, Jr., general manager of the Dark-Fired Tobacco Growers Marketing Association, informed growers attending the annual Association meeting at Farmville Friday.

Price supports on the 1971 crop will average 48.5 cents per pound, up about four per cent over the 46.6 cents average for 1970. The better grades will be up about $1 per hundred pounds, with some of the cheaper grades advanced as much as $2 to $3 per hundred.

Thanksgiving Service Nov. 25

A Community Thanksgiving Service will be held at Liberty Baptist Church at 9:00 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day. Rev. W. M. Lath, rector of St. Anne's Episcopal Church, will be speaker. What's It All About? Set For Friday

"What's It All About?" is the title of a Folk Musical to be presented by these young people Friday evening, November 2 at 8 p.m. at the Evergreen Baptist Church. Thirty-six singers from numerous churches in the county have been rehearsing since July. Co-directors are Mrs. Kenneth St. John and Mrs. Dan Harvey, pianist-accompanist. "What's It All About" was presented recently by these singers at a district Methodist Conference held in Farmville. The public is invited. The musical is a blend of narrative, solos, ensemble singing, all telling the Gospel story with reverence and with joy.

The group will also sing at Red Oak Baptist Church Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Bland Franklin Guest Speaker

LYNCHBURG, Nov. 19--Bland Franklin, Extension Specialist, Community Development with the Extension Division of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, was guest speaker Thursday at Fidelity National Bank's Regional Bank Managers' meeting held in the Board Room of the bank's Main Office.

Speaking on "Building Better Communities," Mr. Franklin emphasized rural - urban balance as a major need in Virginia, pointing out that people should be able "to settle according to choice rather than being forced to migrate toward the big cities."

He described many of the state's rural areas as lacking in medical facilities, cultural facilities, water and sewerage, housing and educational and job opportunities. And, he added, at the same time the population drain of rural areas worsens existing conditions, and places an extra burden on urban areas which do not have the expanded facilities to accomodate explosive population growth.

Girls' Varsity Team Plays 1st Game Dec. 3

It won't be long until the start of the Girls Varsity Basketball season at Appomatox County High School. First game - Friday, December 3, at 6:30 p.m. The team and coach (above) have quite a record to match -- or beat -- when they check on last year's ACHS Girls' total of 14 games won and only one loss (non-District). Their 13-0 District record was only marred by a loss in the finals in the District Tourney, and these fine players this year are determined to go all the way to the Tourney and win!! (From left, seated:) Rita Inge, Kay Paulette, co-captain; Joan Coleman, Margie Hamlet (The other co-captain, Pat Ferguson is not shown). Second row: Kathy Mitchell, Pat Book, Sally Harvey, Pat Hudson, Jane Hix. Third row: Debby Tweedy (manager), Debbie Preston, Susan Moore, Teresa Smith, Mary Louise McCraw, Coach, Mrs. Louise Martin.
